

P8731 PC Firearms Unit

Working within the Firearms Unit to provide expertise, specialist operational skills and resources to any District or Departmental firearms incident or other significant incident or event anywhere within the Force area including the Fast Road Network.

To crew an armed response vehicle when required and when so doing be responsible for the security and safe keeping of the vehicle and its equipment.

Main Responsibilities

- To undertake pre-planned firearms operations, providing specialist capabilities as required by the tactical plan to achieve successful outcomes including hard stop tactics, specialist escorts, less lethal options, close protection, dynamic, or rapid entry where necessary utilising specialist method of entry equipment.
- To complete training in accordance with the training matrix for Firearms Unit.
- To provide armed support to specialist surveillance operations to ensure the safety of all unarmed surveillance officers deployed without compromising the operation.
- When necessary to deploy as an ARV to provide a rapid response to firearms or other significant incidents including those on the fast road network.
- To perform tasks in accordance with the National Intelligence Model in support of Force, Departmental and Territorial District priorities, initiatives and Operations.