TV Licensing - Direct debit set up

Hurry, you've just days left to renew your TV Licence.
We just need a few details to get started. Your licence covers you to watch or record live TV programmes on any channel or device and to download or watch BBC programmes on iPlayer until the end of 12/01/2022

Just remember to keep your licence payments up to date, to make sure you stay licensed. Choosing to receive your licence by email saves money, which the BBC can spend on TV, radio and online services.

Licence number: [REDACTED]

Licence expiry date: Wednesday, 12 January 2022
